

Pardeshi bags Arya Chanakya best administrator award

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

PUNE, NOVEMBER 27

SHRIKAR Pardeshi, Commissioner, Pimpri Chinchwad Municipal Corporation (PCMC), has bagged the Arya Chanakya best administrator award for 2013. The awards are given in collaboration with the state cooperative and legislative affairs ministry.

Pardeshi has been chosen for his exemplary work as the chief executive officer of Yavatmal Zilla Parishad, district collector of Nanded and Akola and as the civic chief of PCMC. During his tenure as the district collector of Nanded, he had started student audit to weed out fraudulent admissions. As the civic chief of PCMC he took on the illegal constructions.

Advocate Darius Khambata, Advocate General, Maharashtra, has won the Arya Chanakya best

SHRIKAR PARDESHI

legal process award while independent MLA from Amravati, Omprakash Kadu, has been awarded the Arya Chanakya best people's representative award. Suresh Dasarwar, Resident Editor of the Nagpur edition of a Marathi daily, has been awarded the Arya Chanakya award for best journalist.

The awards would be given away on December 4 at Rabindra Natya Mandir in Mumbai.